Mayor's Order 2003-140
September 30, 2003

SUBJECT: Establishment - Juvenile Justice Reform Task Force

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families, and Elders

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(2) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, as amended, 87 Stat. 790, Pub. L. No. 93-198, D.C. Official Code §1-204.22(2), it is hereby ORDERED that:

I. ESTABLISHMENT

There is established in the Executive Branch of the Government of the District of Columbia the Juvenile Justice Reform Task Force (hereinafter referred to as the "Task Force").

II. PURPOSE

The Task Force shall serve as an advisory body to make recommendations to the Mayor regarding providing direct oversight of the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan.

III. FUNCTIONS

The Task Force shall report to the Mayor through the Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families and Elders, and the functions of the Task Force shall include:

- A. Monitoring the completion of action items in accordance with stated time frames.
- B. Reporting on the progress of implementation of the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan.
- C. Recommending removal of barriers to the completion of action items including expenditures, administrative barriers, and problem-solving in order to ensure a swift and successful implementation of the Plan.
- D. Holding each agency accountable so that action items are addressed appropriately and in a timely manner.

J-3147-75

- E. Facilitating coordination among implementing agencies.
- F. Providing regular progress reports to the Mayor and the Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families and Elders on the implementation of the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan.
- G. Mobilizing resources among implementing government agencies in support of the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan operations.
- H. Serving as a key link between agencies and other entities in providing information about the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan and promoting buy-in and support for the Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan.
- I. Advocating, where necessary, for increased resources to support Juvenile Justice Reform Action Plan objectives.
- J. Notifying the Mayor's office if an action step cannot be performed or if another course of action is recommended. If such is the case, research and justification for a change of action should be submitted.
- K. Provide information regarding implementation of the Juvenile Justice Reform Plan to document progress and success, inform the community, and increase public awareness of efforts in this area.

IV. COMPOSITION

- A. The Task Force shall be composed of nineteen (19) voting members, appointed by the Mayor.
- B. The voting members appointed to the Task Force shall include the following, or his/her designee:

October 16, 2003SUBJECT: Establishment – Mayor's Environmental Task Force for the District of Columbia

ORIGINATING AGENCY: Office of the Mayor

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the District of Columbia by section 422(2) of the District of Columbia Home Rule Act, approved December 24, 1973, Pub. L. No. 93-198, 87 Stat. 790, D.C. Official Code § 1-204.22(2) (2001) it is hereby

ORDERED that:

1. ESTABLISHMENT: There is established a Mayor's Environmental Task Force for the District of Columbia (hereinafter "Environmental Task Force").
2. PURPOSE: The Environmental Task Force shall, through interagency communication and coordination, identify crosscutting environmental issues that impact on the natural and built environment and public health of the residents of the District of Columbia. The Environmental Task Force shall advise the Mayor on programs to protect and strengthen the environment in the District.
3. FUNCTIONS: The Environmental Task Force shall:
  - a) Provide a forum to ensure optimal communication and cooperation between the network of agencies with responsibility for issues that impact on the natural and built environment in the District of Columbia;
  - b) Oversee the development of a government-wide environmental agenda;
  - c) Identify and develop programs to address immediate and long-range environmental concerns;
  - d) Publish a Mayor's Environmental Score Card annually;
  - e) Advise the Mayor on systemic and other issues affecting the coordination and implementation of environmental initiatives;
  - f) Review innovative solutions pursued by other jurisdictions in the area of environmental quality;
  - g) Provide appropriate notice to ensure that the District government is in compliance with existing laws related to the environment;

J-3147-75

- h) Make recommendations to improve enforcement of environmental laws;
- i) Develop a "green government initiative" which aims to get District government agencies to steadily reduce the environmental impact of government operations through improved energy efficiency, procurement, operations, recycling and waste disposal by means of a steering committee, chaired by the Director of the D.C. Energy Office, that shall:
  - i. Work with relevant agencies to further the goals stated in the Mayor's May 9, 2000 Memorandum establishing a Green Government Initiative, namely to reduce the Government's generation of solid and hazardous waste; maximize recycling of paper, metals, plastic and glass; achieve cost savings through the purchase of more efficient and durable materials; minimize human exposure to products containing toxic materials; prevent air and water pollution; conserve natural resources; reduce energy use; and set an example for the private sector;
  - ii. Assist in the implementation of the "Energy and Operational Efficiency Performance-Based Contracting Amendment Act of 2002";
  - iii. Examine the use of programs such as Energy Star and Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) to support procurement practices in making District government buildings more environmentally friendly;
  - iv. Explore the creation of a special revolving fund that could be used to seed special initiatives leading toward a greener D.C. government;
  - v. Support the updating of building energy audits; and
  - vi. Assist and support the Office of the Chief Technology Officer in expanding Building Automation and Control network (BACnet) for monitoring and reporting energy use in District facilities.
- j) Assist the Mayor in obtaining increased federal assistance and Congressional support for the city's environmental programs and initiatives;
- k) Assist the Mayor and District government agencies in obtaining support for environmental programs from community groups, foundations, corporations, and other organizations with which the agencies might partner in furthering the Mayor's Environmental Agenda;
- l) Provide advice and guidance to the Mayor and District government agencies on issues related to the environment, including but not limited to proposed legislation, rules, regulations and budgets;

- m) Assist the Mayor with community and media outreach to help publicize the city's environmental initiatives and help educate the public about environmental issues;
- n) Interact with the Mayor's Environmental Council, the Metropolitan Washington Council of Governments and the D.C. Council's Environmental Planning Commission;
- o) Recommend other activities as it may deem appropriate with respect to matters affecting environmental issues and programs in the District; and
- p) Undertake such other duties as may be requested by the Mayor or the City Administrator in accordance with this Order and applicable law.

4. COMPOSITION: The City Administrator shall serve as Chairperson of the Environmental Task Force. The Environmental Task Force shall be composed of the following persons or their designees:

- A representative of the Executive Office of the Mayor;
- The City Administrator of the District of Columbia;
- The Deputy Mayor for Operations;
- The Deputy Mayor for Children, Youth, Families and Individuals;
- The Deputy Mayor for Planning and Economic Development;
- The Director of the Department of Health;

The Task Force shall undertake a review of the District of Columbia government's statutes and rules in order (i) to determine the nature and extent of permitted disclosure of information concerning District of Columbia employees, (ii) to determine the types of information that should be made subject to disclosure, and (iii) to recommend to the Mayor such amendments to the pertinent statutes and regulations as the Task Force may deem necessary and appropriate to ensure that adequate information is made available to the public relating to District of Columbia government employees

III. DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS

- A. Analyze pertinent District of Columbia statutes and regulations, including personnel laws, the D.C. Freedom of Information Act, and interpretative regulations and decisions
- B. Examine public requests for information concerning District of Columbia government personnel and the government's responses
- C. Review pertinent law and practices in the federal government and in neighboring and other selected State jurisdictions
- D. Interview interested persons within the District of Columbia government and the general public to ascertain their views concerning the disclosure of personnel information
- E. Prepare a report for the Mayor setting forth the Task Force's findings and recommendations.

J-3147-75

IV. COMPOSITION

The Task Force shall be composed of the following persons:

- A. The City Administrator
- B. The Chief of Staff of the Executive Office of the Mayor
- C. The Corporation Counsel
- D. The Director of the District of Columbia Office of Personnel
- E. One or more representatives of independent agencies of the District of Columbia government, subject to the concurrence of the agencies that their representatives may serve as members of the Task Force
- F. One member of the District of Columbia Council, subject to the Council's concurrence that the member so designated may serve as a member of the Task Force
- G. The general counsel to the Mayor
- H. Two or more representatives of labor unions representing District of Columbia employees in collective-bargaining units with which the District of Columbia government has entered into collective-bargaining agreements
- I. Three or more members of the general public, including at least two representatives of the media (whether print, radio, or television).

The persons appointed to the Task Force pursuant to Paragraphs A through G, above, may designate delegates who may attend meetings of the Task Force and perform the functions assigned to the appointees. The Mayor shall designate one of the appointed members of the Task Force to serve as its Chair, responsible for convening and conducting meetings of the Task Force so as to effectuate the objectives of this Order. The Director of Personnel or his or her designee shall be the Secretary of the Task Force, responsible for tracking and recording the results of the Task Force's deliberations. The Chief of Staff shall provide resources sufficient to support the functions of the Task Force.

V. TERMS

Each member of the Task Force shall serve on the Task Force for so long as he or she holds the position described above in Section IV.

VI. FREQUENCY OF MEETINGS

The Task Force shall meet on the call of the Chair, who shall distribute pertinent information to the Task Force's members and shall convene meetings when and as necessary to effectuate the timely submission of the Task Force's report and recommendations to the Mayor.

VII. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Order shall become effective immediately.
